Insurance

Health Insurance must cover all the medical costs for the entire period of stay and it is better to have such a document issued by the home country. The case is the same with the accident and third party liability insurance during educational activities in the university buildings, transfers to and from the university and during excursions approved or organized by the university.

United telephone number for emergency situations: 112. Traffic accidents: 165. Fire Department: 160

Transport

As the University is located in the central part of the city students can travel by bus to/from the campus: number 94, 102, 280 and mini-buses number: 7, 8, 27, 5. There are also four night bus lines marked N1, N2, N3 and N4. Most popular taxis: Yellow 333 taxi, OK taxi, Sofiataxi. Be aware of the information written on the front glass and side doors of the car!

Currency exchange and banks

The Bulgarian currency is called Lev (pl. Leva) which equals 100 stotinki. One Euro is equal to approx. 1.95 Leva. If you need to exchange money at the airport use the ATM machines at Terminal 1 or Terminal 2.

Student's life

The Association of Medical Students in Bulgaria (AMSB) – www.amsb-sofia.org is an independent, non-political, non-governmental, non-religious, democratic organization of the medical students from the whole country. It is a full member of the International Federation of Medical Students' Association. Every year they organize the Congress of Medical Sciences (www.icmsbg.org) which is the leading and most important academic event for students and young doctors. The Association of Medical Students in Bulgaria (AMSB) organizes students travel and participation in international meetings, congresses, training and science sessions. You can contact them at: info@amsbulgaria.net

ISIC Card

Visit a local ISIC Office. The ISIC is only available to full time students, so you must be able to prove you are currently studying full time at school, college or university.

When applying please provide one of the following documents: A copy of your university or student identity card, clearly dated and indicating you are a full time student; A signed and dated letter by official university or school stationery stating you are studying there full time. We prefer an original copy, although photocopies and faxes may be accepted. You will also need: Proof of your date of birth (for example: passport, birth certificate, official identity card issued in your country of residence). A recent passport sized photograph of you. These cards can be issued by ISIC offices (USIT Colors): Studentski grad Municipality, "8 December Str. N 25 (opposite the Polyclinic).

Transport facilities

One ticket of the public transport costs 1.60 Leva. You can use student reduced cards that are at a reasonable price – 21.50 Leva/month for all lines and types of transport or 9.00 Leva for one line. If you don't have a passport sized photo which is needed, you may go to the photo-shop on 12 "Shipka" Str. which is nearby the Sofia University – "St. Kliment Ohridski". The Urban Mobility Center for issuing such cards is located in the subway in front of the University. The Erasmus+ Office will give you a letter to certify that you are an Erasmus student at MU-Sofia. The letter should be delivered to the Urban Mobility Center along with your ID card/Passport and one photo.
